

The Kentucky Academy of Family Physicians is publishing its first issue of the Journal of the KAFP dedicated to the arts and humanities.

We are looking for:

- * original fiction
- * personal essays
- * poetry
- * photography
- * artwork

related to the practice of medicine or the state of Kentucky.

Submissions are welcomed from any Kentucky:

- * medical student
- * family medicine resident
- * family physician

This is a great opportunity to share your original work with colleagues and friends.

Please contact Melissa Zook regarding your interest and the nature of the work you plan to submit for publication.
